Sir,

My Committee desire me to thank you for your letter No. G. 2055
G.M. 279-11-6
regarding the recovery of £80.6.11 from Mr Cumbampatti Meenakshayya and his family to pay the debts contracted by him in London, and recoup the amount advanced to him by the Distressed Indian Students' Aid Committee, and to ask whether there is any prospect of ~~its~~ their ever recovering the amount due from Mr Meenakshayya, or whether they should now write it off as a bad debt. You will understand that the Committee are reluctant to do so, as it will mean a permanent reduction in the funds at their disposal for the assistance of Indian students in distress.
